

Community Health System Management

Ms. Sureewan Siladlao

Community Public Health Program

“Community health system” means a system consisting of interrelated components that contribute to the well-being of the people of the community through the cooperation of members of various community groups.

Component

1

Community organizations

2

Health organization

3

Schools, Temples, Health funds

4

Private organization